

Fall in love with Literati Book Fairs!

There's something magical about a school book fair—the anticipation, the excitement, and the joy of discovering new stories. Literati Book Fairs bring that magic to life in a refreshingly different way, captivating students, educators, and parents alike. Here's why you'll fall in love with the Literati Book Fair experience.

Books Kids Love: At the heart of every Literati Book Fair is a curated selection of books designed to spark a love of reading. With titles from over 150 publishers, students can find their next favorite read. Plus, the newly expanded online shopping experience ensures that every child has access to books that inspire and engage them with titles like Dog Man and I Survived.

Rewards Schools Love: Literati Book Fairs don't just benefit young readers—they also give back to schools in a meaningful way. Schools can choose from multiple reward options, including book profit, Follett Titlewave credit, cash, or a combination of all three. This flexibility allows schools to select the rewards that best support their library and literacy programs.

Easier Fundraising: Planning and running a book fair shouldn't be stressful. Educators rave about how Literati Book Fairs make the process smooth and enjoyable. With intuitive display cases and an easy-to-use online resource portal, hosting a book fair has never been simpler. Schools can focus on fostering a love of reading while effortlessly raising funds for their programs.

"We love using Literati for our book fairs! The setup is a breeze, the book selection is great, and the customer service is top-notch." - Dove Creek Elementary

Literati Book Fairs transform book discovery into an unforgettable experience. Whether students are flipping through pages in person or browsing online, they're engaging in a literacy adventure that will stay with them for years to come. With an emphasis on accessibility, excitement, and ease, Literati Book Fairs create lasting memories while supporting schools in their mission to nurture lifelong readers.

It's time to experience the magic of a Literati Book Fair—because when students fall in love with books, they unlock a world of possibilities.